

Course Title: Becoming an Inspiring Leader, Not a Manager.

Target Audience - Potential and existing Middle and Senior Leaders

Aims of the Course:

Motivating a team is not an easy job when you have Key Stage test results to analyse, lessons to plan, meetings to attend and the list goes on. This course gives existing and potential middle and senior leaders the space to think about their role or potential role as a leader within their team, and provides tips on how to develop teams to become leaders themselves.

By the end of the workshop delegates will:

- Understand leadership theory
- Identify the difference between leadership and management
 - Reflect on their leadership style
- Create a personal development plan in order to become an inspirational leader
